Overview:Freehold building in the heart of La Cala de Mijas. Located on a corner overlooking the boulevard, it consists of several businesses on the ground floor at street level, as well as two more floors used so far as homes. The property, built in the 60s, needs renovations and refurbishment. However, its privileged location as well as its potential make it an attractive investment with various possibilities, whether for a large store with a warehouse, a multinational or a hostel. Visit it today to check its potential.
