Overview: Beautiful country house located in a natural setting surrounded by oaks and carob trees; being in a high area has fabulous views over the sea, the mountains and the Rock of Gibraltar. The property is accessed through a wooden electric gate through and a paved lane gives access to housing. The house has been built by British builders, following the highest standards of quality. Upon entering this home is a hallway, next to a toilet and a sink, past the hall we find a large living room with several doors through which all light comes on, which gives plenty of light for housing as the variety of windows in the property, an elegant fireplace brings warmth to the house. Next to the living room is a spacious dining room, a fully equipped luxury kitchen with appliances and quality furniture. From the living room and kitchen you can access into the large terrace that skirts the property entirely, on the first floor there are 3 bedrooms, master, twin, double plus a study. In the same plot there is a house about 120 years old which has been renovated . It has 2 bedrooms, living room with fireplace, fully equipped kitchen and a bathroom, from the bedrooms you can have access to a delightful patio. This house has it's own private Off Ground Pool The country property is a beautiful well maintained mature garden, large terrace, barbecue area, a nice pool, a porch to park several cars and a garage is ideal for horses who love peace and nature.
