Only 5 minutes drive to Marbella town and 10 minutes to Puerto Banus. Offering a wonderful synthesis between modern luxury and traditional cortigo architecture, this recently refurbished luxury mansion offers the most wonderful beachfront lawn garden with large swimming pool, outdoor kitchen & bar, plus a private cabana overlooking the beach. The quiet beach in the exclusive gated urbanization of Los Monteros Playa offers superb privacy, and the property features stunning panoramic sea views from every part of the main house, garden, and pool, including the newly renovated roof terrace with a second glass pool and sunken chillout area. In total, this property offers 3 swimming pools: the large main pool in the garden, a glass rooftop pool, and a heated indoor pool. The indoor pool also offers a retractable roof to bring the blue sky or stars directly inside the house! In addition to the main house, a unique feature of this property is its separate additional guest accommodation with a number of bedroom suites arranged around a charming courtyard with water feature and delightful plantings, making it ideal for extended families and or groups of friends holidaying together. The main villa features a large open-plan main living area with high ceiling and full glass frontage to the garden and pool with huge sliding doors and panoramic sea view, and a new modern kitchen connected to the living area, all of which open directly onto the large terrace with extensive outdoor seating areas and spectacular panoramic sea views. The main house accommodates the large master bedroom suite with private lounge, double bedroom and bathroom all with direct sea views, including from the bed, a beauty treatment room with sauna and steam, a huge walk-in wardrobe with separate dressing room opening onto a private terrace providing direct access to the gym and the garden from the master suite. Around the courtyard there are 6 en-suite bedrooms in different styles, some with private lounges, and an eighth bedroom in the historic tower which offers a wonderful panoramic sea view from the bed as well as access to the roof terrace. The main house also offers an indoor pool, gym, spa, private cinema, and extensive staff accommodation + industrial kitchen for large scale catering.
