Overview:Unique, luxury 5 berdoom villa with breathtaking sea views in La Quinta, Benahavis Exclusive and stately villa of individual design, designed and built with attention to every detail. The Villa has one of the best plots in La Quinta, which increases the views directly on La Quinta Golf and beyond to the Mediterranean Sea. A family golf fee is included in the sale, which means that new owners can participate fully in the local Club community. The large driveway to the garage that has space for five cars has been completely renovated with a separate bedroom and bathroom maid. The space can be used for many other possibilities. The entrance to the property has a traditional ornate staircase that leads to the first floor and looks towards the ceiling with unique and handcrafted stone arches. On the lower level you have a large living room with a large fireplace, overlooking the large swimming pool and a dining room next to it. The kitchen is everything you can expect from this stunning villa with all your expensive work surfaces, cabinets and kitchen appliances. There is a guest bedroom also on this floor with a separate bathroom. On the first floor there are 3 more bedrooms, all with bathrooms and the master bedroom has a large terrace with stunning views. The outside area has a large terrace with a large living / dining area overlooking the stunning pool and golf course and the sea.
