Soak in your own private infinity pool or lounge in the lavish, cool interior. Private, gorgeous baths in every room. - 5 bedrooms (3 double beds, 4 single, all Jensen beds) - 5 en-suite baths - Modern, luxurious design - Expansive views of the Mediterranean, Gibraltar, and Africa - Infinity pool heated on demand with lounge area - Air-conditioned with in-floor heating and cooling

The Details: Villa Origami was designed by an award-winning architect with one purpose in mind—to create a space where Andalusian luxury is realized to its fullest potential. You'll find that we've done just that. Laid out over four floors, every inch of the home has been expertly thought out. Clean, white, linear architecture lends a sense of drama, while natural elements bring everything together for a warm and inviting space. Glass plays an integral role in the design. You'll find that every bedroom in the home features views of the Mediterranean, with Gibraltar and the coast of Africa off in the distance. Slide open the windows to seamlessly blend the interior with the beautiful outdoors. From the terrace, you're rewarded with similar views as you swim in the infinity pool, enjoy a bottle of champagne on the plush outdoor sofa, or soak in the sun from the comfort of the sleek lounge chairs. In the evenings, you'll be met with beautiful sunsets as you partake in the outdoor grilling and dining. Beach clubs, bars, and restaurants of every variety await you just minutes away, and the home comes equipped with a full kitchen featuring plenty of counter space and high-end appliances. Three bedrooms within the home feature double beds, while the fourth and fifth bedrooms hold two single beds each. All five bedrooms come equipped with soft, plush linens. All five bedrooms also have their own en-suite bathroom, with his-and-hers vanities and views from the showers and soaking tubs. Every room in the home is air-conditioned and equipped with both in-floor heating and cooling, ensuring you'll have a comfortable stay. For extra entertainment, you'll find a billiards table in the downstairs bedroom, as well as televisions in every room (with premium international channels), and high-speed WiFi throughout the entire home. The neighborhood is safe, but feel free to park in the private garage for added security and comfort. The home overlooks the world-class El Paraiso and Atalaya Golf Clubs, with 54 holes between them. Just five minutes away, you'll find some of the best golfing on the entire Costa del Sol. Name-brand luxury shopping can be found just minutes down the road in Puerto Banus. We're here to provide help during your stay, and upon request, we'll arrange for a private chef, golf outing, yacht rental, or more. Don't hesitate to reach out! If you're looking for a luxury experience and beautiful design, look no further. You've found it in Villa Origami. If desired, we can arrange a private chef, golf outing, yacht rental, or more.
