Overview: Located on an exclusive road within La Cala Golf and only a few minutes' walk from the the golf club house, a luxury hotel and restaurants, this newly reformed villa has the highest possible qualities and finishes. This stunning home has a golf course to the front and rear and offers spectacular views across the mountains and forests. From upstairs there are views towards the local village of La Cala and the Mediterranean sea. This turnkey home is a combination of modern contemporary architecture and design, perfectly matched with a Spanish traditional finish. The interior is bright and spacious, with open plan spaces and floor to ceiling windows, it is exquisitely finished and tastefully decorated. The entrance charms with a bright double-height ceiling leading to an open plan living area and sleek kitchen. A total of 4 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms offers generous living space, with the master suite and wrap around terrace on the top floor providing spectacular views. Lovely exteriors include a neat and well-groomed garden and large terrace spaces, perfect for entertaining guests. The large swimming pool has LumiPlusLED lighting providing the extra wow factor. Included in the house is underground secure parking with 3 spaces as well as ample drive space for visitor parking. There are so many extra qualities with this villa, viewing is highly recommended.
