This sublime villa, with its clean lines and simplicity represents timeless modernity, and the resulting home can blend seamlessly into a classic Mediterranean seascape. Inspired by the azure and white themes of the hip island of Ibiza, the villa appears to be floating, with the exterior lounge-chillout area surrounded by the shimmering limpid waters of the turquoise pool. Generous in proportions with almost 1100 m² of living space over 3 floors including beautiful terraces that seamlessly blend the interior and exterior areas for your ideal enjoyment of a modern Mediterranean lifestyle. The interior design is characterized by an abundance of white, light wood and neutral tones, and quirky touches bringing in a funky 60s/70s feel. Thanks to the vast open spaces created by the streamlined, retractable windows, the interior and exterior living areas blend seamlessly together to maximize the light and spaciousness of the home, while enhancing your enjoyment of the views and al-fresco living. The harmonious ground floor covers some 359,7 m² of stylish living space, with a further 269,1 m², comprising the bedroom suites. A large basement of 467,2 m² completes this superb contemporary villa. Customizable to your lifestyle, along with the chic living areas and stylish bedroom suites, this fabulous home has a stunning games room and home spa. How about your dream home, which features are a must?
