Las Cascadas de las Lomas is a well developed modern and luxurious complex set in the hills above Sitio de Calahonda on the Costa del Sol. The elevated hillside setting provides owners and their guests with breath taking views of the Mediterranean and towards both Gibraltar and North Africa. Located a couple of kilometres along the road is Puerto Cabopino, which has the reputation for being the most secluded and picturesque port on the Costa del Sol and is a popular venue for tourists who want to enjoy a good meal before taking a walk along its sandy beaches. Some of the Coasts most popular restaurants, such as Alberts and Giuseppe's Pizzeria, are located here. Nearby you'll discover Miraflores, a popular golf and lawn bowls resort and a little further on, you come to the area of Mijas and Mijas Pueblo, Andalusia's most popular white village, which is situated slightly further northeast in the hills. Close by are the natural sand dunes at Cabopino and beach resorts with more facilities in either direction, left or right and you will come to one of the popular destinations of Fuengirola (to the left) and Marbella (to the right), where you have great beaches and leisure facilities galore.
