Overview: A beautiful three bedroom town house located in the upper area of Riviera del Sol. Totally refurbished and very modern with high ceilings and quality materials. You enter into a roomy hallway with a mezzanine looking down on to the lounge, there are three bedrooms, two bathrooms and sea views on this level. There are stairs that go up to the solarium where there are also sea views. On the ground floor is a large lounge diner with a modern fully fitted open plan kitchen, fire place, WC and a skylight giving lots of natural light. From this level there is access to a private garden and covered terrace also with sea views. The furniture is not included but it's optional. Within the gated community there's a private covered parking space, communal gardens and pool. Just a five minutes drive to all amenities and the beach.
