Overview: A large two bedroom apartment in an unbeatable location, front line beach in Calahonda just steps away from the popular boardwalk where you can walk all the way along the beach to the port of Cabopino. The apartment has been very well maintained by the current owners and features two bedrooms, two full bathrooms, separate guest cloakroom, large and bright lounge, independent fully fitted kitchen and, of, course, uninterrupted panoramic sea views. There are a selection of bars and restaurants right on the doorstep and the complex also benefits from the use of a lovely communal swimming pool with children's pool, as well as access to the beach. There is ample street parking right outside the property, though in this location you won't need a car. Priced to sell and offered fully furnished with a separate lockable storage room included in the price.
